FINANCE CAMPAIGNS

An election steering committee, consisting of a cross-section of District leaders (appointed jointly by the Board of Education and the superintendent of schools) is to be organized to provide advice, to plan the campaign, and to develop strategies, and to assist in carrying out specific tasks.

The superintendent of schools, with the assistance of the director of school/ community relations, is to coordinate campaign activities.

Board members, administrators, principals, teachers, and other personnel, are responsible for doing everything in their power to assure that a vigorous campaign is waged.
